Re: Laramore v. Quality Residence, LLC
Civil No. 21-cv-781-WMW-KMM

Dear Ms. Laramore:

I am writing to invite you to participate in a settlement conference in your pending lawsuit. During a settlement conference, the parties work together with me to try and resolve a case through negotiation and compromise. Such settlements can often help find a solution that both sides will accept.

If you are interested in participating in such a conference, you can do so on your own without a lawyer. I could also refer you to the Federal Bar Association's Pro Se Project. They might be able to assign a lawyer to assist you just for the settlement conference.

Please submit a letter to the Court as soon as possible if you would like to attend a settlement conference. Please also advise whether you would like to be referred to the Pro Se Project for the limited purpose of having counsel for such a conference.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

s/ Kate Menendez
